

Mike HoogasianPresident & Owner-MicroAge Technology Services

Mike studied at the University of Waterloo. A life-long resident with strong family ties to St. Catharines, he is President and Owner of MicroAge Technology Services. Since 1984, MicroAge Technology Services has assisted clients with their IT requirements in the Niagara Region and throughout Southwestern Ontario. Mike participates in many charity events across the region to help give back to the community.