

Rod MawhoodPA Announcer-Niagara IceDogs Hockey Club

Rod Mawhood is a lifelong Niagara native who has had the pleasure of working in all three mediums – Radio, Print and TV – for over 20 years. His first announcing gig was with the then St. Catharines Stompers. Since then he's worked in radio and TV in Toronto, and currently is the announcer for the Niagara IceDogs and Niagara River Lions. Rod also covers the Buffalo Bills for FOX Sports, and the Buffalo Sabres for NBC Sports.

He has coached hockey at high school, All-Star and house league levels for over 15 years. Always willing to give back to the community, Rod is a guest speaker for local schools across Niagara, and emcees at numerous charity and sporting events.