

Gita Clarkson

Gita Clarkson is a seasoned business professional with nearly 30 years of experience helping organizations unlock the full potential of their people. As the founder of a boutique human resources and talent enablement firm, she specializes in creating tailored talent strategies that enable businesses to acquire, motivate, and retain top talent, while also empowering individuals to navigate their careers with confidence.

Known for her leadership and strategic insight, Gita is recognized as a trusted partner who fosters credible relationships, creates positive workplace cultures, and navigates complex challenges with calm expertise. Her commitment to people extends beyond the workplace through service on community and not-for-profit boards. Gita has served on various boards serving women and children, victims of crime, and community based financial services. Passionate about making a positive social impact, she actively supports initiatives that uplift the vulnerable and the underserved.

A proud native of Niagara Falls, Gita's Indo-Canadian roots enrich her perspective and ability to solve problems that affect real people. Her natural optimism and creative mindset empower her to bridge cultural gaps and bring a unique depth of understanding to both professional and personal endeavors.
